The Electronic African Bookworm - A Web Navigator

This fine gateway devoted to African studies has been developed by Hans Zell Publishing Consultants in Oxford as part of their website and is "specifically designed for use by the book professions in Africa, and by African writers and scholars." With over 1,200 sites relating to African literature, history, general information, news, electronic networks, libraries, and resources for writers, journalists, and editors, the Electronic African Bookworm not only directs users to a wealth of information, but features many added annotations that suggest best starter resources, identify new sites and information, and provide background on site resources. Hans Zell's claim to provide "a quick-access guide and pick-list to some of the best Internet sites on Africa."
